ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF SUSTAINABLE STREETS

One: The name of the corporation is: Sustainable Streets.

Two: This corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for charitable purposes.

Such purposes for which this corporation is organized are exclusively charitable within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The specific and primary purposes for which this corporation is organized are to i) advance the development of sustainable active transportation; ii) educate people of all ages and abilities to be less dependent on motorized vehicles for daily trips; and iii) encourage all citizens to participate in active transportation.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Three: The name and address of the corporation's initial agent for service of process are:

Ronald F. Durgin
147 North Hamilton Drive, Apt. 101
Beverly Hills, CA 90211

Four: (a) No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

(b) This corporation is not organized, nor shall it be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit, and it does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits or dividends to the members thereof or to any private shareholder (as defined for purposes of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) or individual.

(c) The property, assets, profits, and net income of this corporation are dedicated irrevocably to the purposes set forth in Article Two above, and no part of the profits or net income of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, trustee, officer, or member thereof or to the benefit of any private individual.

(d) Upon the winding up and dissolution of this corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the corporation, the remaining assets of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation, which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes as set forth in Article Two above and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Notwithstanding any provision contained in these Articles or in any other governing instrument of this corporation, this corporation is required to distribute its income for each taxable year at such times and in such manner as not to subject the corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. In addition, this corporation shall not, during any period and to the extent that it is a private foundation described in Section 509 of such Code, (a) engage in any act of self-dealing (as defined in Section 4941(d) of said Code); (b) retain any excess business holdings (as defined in Section 4943(c) of said Code); (c) make any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under Section 4944 of said Code; or (d) make any taxable expenditures (as defined in Section 4945(d) of said Code).

The undersigned declares that he is the person who has executed these Articles of Incorporation and hereby declares that this instrument is the act and deed of the undersigned.
